Keeping Up

As we study the book of Revelation, it will be important to stay up to date with the study. If you miss a week or two, you might find it hard to make sense of how it all fits together. Let me encourage you to take the time to listen to the podcast or watch the sermon videos online. Summer is a season of travel and vacation. That makes this particular study a challenge. However, with the technology that we have available, you can keep up each week and get the most out of this study.

You can subscribe to the podcast or watch the sermon videos at <https://fbcmuncie.org/keepup>.

World Mission Offering

ABC churches have the opportunity to help around the world to show Christ in how we care. During the month of October, you have the chance to give to this world-wide fund. Envelopes are at both ends of most pews. Make checks to First Baptist Church and Dan will send one check from all of us. Thank you for caring.

By Molly Flodder

As our building turns 90, our church turns 160 and our three-year Legacy Capital Campaign comes to a close, we are taking the occasions to celebrate the legacy of our church and appreciate the gifts of people and service that have been given to bring First Baptist Church to where it is.

While we have a beautiful building, our Legacy is not just about the beauty or the history of our building. It is about looking at everyone who comes together to serve the Lord and work in His church, everyone who is building a strong today as a foundation for a stronger tomorrow.

On Sunday, November 24, in a combined service, we will celebrate Legacy Sunday with an eye toward where we have been, where we are, and where we are going. There will be opportunity to appreciate everyone who has played a role in the operation, development and building the future of our church as well as to point out a few people who have played long-term roles in several particular areas such as administration, Christian education, and worship.

After the service, we will all participate in the "Harvest Dinner." This will be a carry-in and, because we expect some extra guests, we will need each household to bring a family-sized side dish or dessert to add to the turkey, ham, and drinks, already being provided.

A team effort is coming together to unveil this wonderful opportunity. In addition to teams working with Pastor Wade, Clif Davis and Bruce McFarland on the service, Barb Campbell (Member Care Ministry) will need a lot of help in setting up, serving and cleaning up for the dinner. Please call Barb at 765-405-1697 or leave a message in the church office, if you are willing to help.
