

Closing Out the Decade

I am deeply grateful to serve such a loving and caring congregation. While we may not be large in number, the family of believers at First Baptist is remarkable. We have taken on several major projects this year which are worth celebrating.

I am thrilled that we can now read more about the stories of our congregation through the work of the Story Project Team. The Legacy Implementation Team is busy at work putting your gifts to good use to secure and renovate our building. The Constitutional Revision Team has worked hard to bring our church documents up-to-date, making them relevant in our culture.

As we close this year, this decade, we have much to celebrate. I look forward to stepping into 2020 with you.

Children's Christmas Caroling

On Sunday, December 15, children in preschool to 5th grade are invited to stay after church for an afternoon of Christmas caroling! We will have a pizza lunch immediately following second service downstairs in the lower auditorium then head to a local nursing home (to be determined) to sing a handful of Christmas songs to the residents. Parents are welcome to join us for lunch then caravan over to the nursing home. The kids will also be delivering small decorated pots with poinsettias around the nursing home! This is sure to put smiles on many faces! Please see Dawn Dawson or Britney Sue with any questions.

Easter Show Sign Up

Easter show on Saturday, April 4, 2020. $95 includes show ticket, buffet meal, driver gratuity, and coach. Pick up at Meijer at 8:00 AM. Return at approximately 8:00 PM. The brochure is available on the bulletin board. This will be an excellent show to see. Seats are going fast so reserve your seat soon. To sign up, call Suzy Mutter at 765-749-3484.

Christmas Caroling and Dinner

The First Baptist Church and Riverside Avenue Baptist Church Caroling, Dinner, and Program (Paul White) will be Sunday, December 8. Caroling starts at 3:30 PM and Dinner is served at 6:00 PM. The program will follow dinner. Meat, drinks, and table service will be furnished. Please bring a dish or two to share. You may come to all or any part of the three-part evening. This is for everyone and is another way to meet new friends. If you plan to go caroling, please contact Jane Patton or Terry Harke. This helps us set up groups to visit our shut-ins.

Story Project Books Available

by Julie Davis First Baptist launched the Story Project in January of this year. It's now December, so we've been working on it for an entire year! Thanks to each of you who wrote or otherwise shared your stories, we will soon have a book, We Are the Clay, in our hands. You had an opportunity to preorder that book on Sunday, November 24 and will have another preorder opportunity on Sunday, December 1. Those copies will be available for you to pick up here at church in the near future. (We will let you know the date as soon as we know!)

Beyond that, once the book is up on Amazon, anyone will be able to order it online and have it sent to their home. The Story Project team hopes you'll enjoy learning more about the people around you at First Baptist. No matter how long you've been attending here, I bet you'll discover something you didn't know! If you find the book encouraging, consider buying a copy for someone you know who would benefit from reading some ways that God has been at work in others' lives. Above all, pray that this work will glorify God. When people read our stories, we want them to be able to see what a faithful and loving God we serve. He has been at work in me; He has been at work in you. And He wants to work in them, too—shaping them to be more like Christ in every way. They may be the next story God will tell!

Visitor or Bulletin Information

If you would like an announcement in the January Visitor, please email it to wade@fbcmuncie.org by Sunday, December 15. You can also email articles for the weekly bulletin by Tuesday of each week.
